“Before All is Said and Done: A Practical Guide to Living and Dying Well” which navigates the realities surrounding dying and widowhood. After the unexpected loss of her husband, Pat shares advice and stories from surviving spouses in hopes of providing comfort and a plan of action. The book underscores the critical importance of discussions in advance of a loved-one’s dying and death. A book-signing with refreshments will follow her talk. Pat’s book is available online and at Lake County Booksellers (4766 Washington Square, WBL).
